

REGENT STREET

Don't just stay here, live here

Atira Regent Street is located in the inner-city suburb of Woolloongabba, home of the Brisbane Cricket Ground, also known as the Gabba, a vast sports stadium hosting professional Aussie Rules football and cricket matches. The area's burgeoning dining scene includes trendy bistros as well as more established fine dining favourites, while nearby shops sell antiques and vintage fashion. Regent Street's central location and close proximity to Universities, public transport and shopping centres means you have easy access to all your day to day requirements and all the other exciting elements Brisbane has to offer.
