With all these great benefits and more, you won't find anything quite like a Scape building.

A year that lasts a lifetime.

Scape is more than a bed and a roof over your head. We know that we'll have some of the finest young minds living with us, so we'll do plenty of things to make sure you're active and inspired. You'll find talks to broaden your mind, demonstrations to sharpen your skills and events to open up doors for life after university.

Scape will shape the most important times of your life.

Today, a degree means more than ever, so we'll promise you more than just a room. Scape is an inspirational place to live and work. We'll make sure you have everything you need to feel safe, calm and at home. You'll be joining a community that looks out for one another, throughout your stay and when you leave. You'll also get that little bit of guidance that will make a big difference, for university and beyond.
